

LOUIS ARMSTRONG, a top Chicago favorite, opens Friday, Feb. 13, at the Chicago theater along with champion dancer, singer and entertainer Sugar Ray Robinson for a one-weeker. While at the Chicago, Louis will receive the Down Beat Hall of Fame award. He'll be honored again Feb. 18, at a big awards party in the Sutherland hotel Orleans Room. Sugar Ray, the undefeated welterweight and middleweight champion of the world, is busy proving to everyone that he is as great on the stage as he was in the ring.

SUGAR RAY ROBINSON, the undefeated welterweight and world's middleweight champion of the world, makes his theatrical stage show debut on the stage of the Chicago Theater this week starting Friday, Feb. 13th (Apparently he isn't superstitious). The Champ made his bow as an entertainer several months ago at a New York City night club, and shortly after that announced his retirement from the ring. His appearance at the Chicago Theater will mark his first stage show engagement.
